TWO CENTS

ANOTHER SCHOOL BUILDING A PREY TO THE FLAMES

Also a Large Barn Owned
by Clyde Martin Destroyed
This Morning

BOTH BELIEVED INCENDIARY

Two fires at an early hour this morning, and both believed to have been of an incendiary origin, have tended to cause a great deal of apprehension on the part of the people of this section of the valley. Within the past month four school houses have been destroyed by fire while an attempt was made to destroy the fifth. In addition to these fires an attempt was made to destroy the home of Alfred Montgomery, a farmer living one and one-half miles east of Fayette City, while this morning the immense modern barn of Clyde Martin, on the West Newton-Belle Vernon road was destroyed by fire entailing a loss of at least $20,000.

This morning at 5 o'clock the out-of-town fire alarm was again sounded, and the local department was called to Gibsonton, where the school building was discovered to be on fire. The fire was discovered by railroad men, who saw smoke coming from the building, and they hastened to the scene. They found that weather boarding had been torn off the rear of the school house and paper stuffed in the opening, and then fired. Had water been available they could have saved the structure. The Belle Vernon and Charleroi fire departments were summoned, but the flames had made such headway that it was impossible to save the building and the firemen gave their attention to saving such of the contents as they could. They managed to get the books and the organ out, but all else went up in flames.

The building was a one-story frame structure, located on the hill in Gibsonton, and was erected a number of years ago. The loss will probably amount to about $5,000.

A fire of greater proportions occurred at the same time the Gibsonton school building was burning. The modern barn of Clyde Martin in Rostraver township, located on the West Newton-Belle Vernon road and about three miles back of Monessen, was completely destroyed by a fire. Mr. Martin was awakened about 4:30 this morning by a commotion among the stock in the barn. On getting up he discovered his barn in flames. He at once gave the alarm and then made an attempt to save what he could from the burning structure. He saved three head of horses, but lost fifteen head of pure-bred Holstein cows, four head of horses, two calves, all of his grain, two mows of hay, farm implements and chickens. It is estimated the loss will run over $20,000 as the barn was modern in its construction, being about 100x40 feet with two silos and fitted up for dairy purposes. It is believed the barn was fired by an incendiary, who had evi-

LUNKS TAKE TWO FROM HOOP POLES

Capt. Osborne's bowling team not only won two out of three from Capt. Hess's Hoop Poles, but likewise rolled the largest number of aggregate pins in the three-game contest at the Elks bowling alleys last night. They took the first game by 34 pins and the second by 15. In the third the Hoop Poles came back strong and took over the Lunks by 25 pins, thereby saving themselves of a whitewash. Tonight Capt. Billy Kuhn's Champs will try conclusions with Capt. Russell's Wahooks. Game called at 8:30. Score:

GREAT INCREASE IN HUNTERS' LICENSES
Up until Thursday night last the county treasurer's office for Westmoreland county had taken $13,646 in hunters' license fees, against a total last year of $11,948. This shows an increase to date of $1,700.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Monchecourt and son George and Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Brand, tendered a surprise party to Mr. and Mrs. George Brand at their home on Third street on Sunday, it being the tenth anniversary of their marriage. The occasion was very enjoyable.

Recently selected the hours for the destruction of the building when it would be impossible to save the structure. There was no fire about the barn, which emphasizes the belief that the destruction of the barn was premeditated.

Taking Up Big Acreage for Building Modern Mining Town

It is reported that the H. C. Frick Coke Company has taken options on a large acreage of land back of Rice's Landing about 500 acres in extent, with a view of erecting a modern mining town, and also to provide for an additional manway by means of which their miners will be able to reach the workings of the big field being developed in that vicinity. Some years ago the Frick Coke company took the old Dilworth mine at that place, which it placed in first class condition, and which it is now operating to its full capacity, the product being shipped to Clairton, for use in the by-product ovens at that place. In addition to the Dilworth holdings the Frick company secured a large additional acreage in that vicinity, said by some to be about 20,000 acres, which field is now being gradually developed. To provide places for their miners to live it will be necessary to build homes for them, and it is for this purpose the company is taking options on desirable land in the vicinity of Rice's Landing. The development of this land will mean much to that section of the valley, which even now is coming rapidly to the front in the way of coal workings.

SEASON FOR BASKET BALL IS OPENING

In a hotly contested basket ball game at the H. T. A. C. last night Frank LaRue's "Blue Streaks" and Mike McGuire's "Mud Turtles" played a hard fought game to a tie score of 20 to 20. The teams were so evenly matched that it was necessary to play a ten-minute extra period, but with no decision. These teams will play off the tie at a later date. The first team of the H. T. A. C. will play a strong team of picked players from Donora tonight at 8 o'clock, admission free. A meeting will be held after the game for the purpose of organizing a basket ball league.

PRICE DALE MAN FREED BY JURY

After being out all night the jury in the case of Alex Dudgeon of Price Dale, charged with the murder of Frank Ball, on Thursday morning returned a verdict of "Not Guilty." This is the second verdict of acquittal rendered by a Westmoreland county jury within the past week, both cases coming from the same vicinity.

The murder of Ball occurred on the afternoon of September 26, and followed an altercation between Ball and Dudgeon, which was supposed to have taken place at a picnic near Price Dale. Dudgeon returned home ahead of Ball and securing a gun it is alleged he waited and shot the man from ambush. Two bullets were fired, both of which took effect in the victim's body. The wounded man was brought to the Charleroi Monessen hospital, where he died at 10 o'clock the same night.

The result of the trial at Greensburg was a surprise to the people of the vicinity where the shooting took place, who were not acquainted with any other facts of the case than that the man was deliberately shot down following a drunken quarrel.

SUSPICIOUS CHARACTERS REPORTED NEAR SCHOOL

Members of the railroad crew which discovered the fire at the Gibsonton school this morning, are reported to have seen two men in the vicinity of the building when they went to put the blaze. They gave chase, but the two suspicious characters were too speedy, and managed to get away without their identity being discovered. A number of rumors prevailed this morning with reference to other school buildings being burned, Stockdale and Manown being mentioned, but these reports were groundless.

DATE SELECTED FOR TUBERCULOSIS DAY

In connection with the 1920 Christmas Seal sale, Tuberculosis Day will be observed in Pennsylvania. The dates selected are Friday, December 3, in the schools and Sunday, December 5, in the churches.

In the schools, principals, teachers, physicians and laymen will speak on the nature and treatment of tuberculosis and how to prevent the disease. Health plays will also be given. Many pastors on December 5 will devote all or part of a sermon to the question of health and particularly tuberculosis. In many Sunday Schools some time will likewise be devoted to presenting the subject. In many churches and Sunday Schools laymen and physicians will also talk.

Gifford Pinchot, Chairman of the State Committee in charge of the Christmas Seal and Health Bond sale said:

"I should like to see Pennsylvania's schools and churches use these days for emphasizing the fact that the White Plague is still a serious menace. The steady drop in the death rate from tuberculosis in Pennsylvania (from 150.9 per 100,000 population in 1906 to 117 in 1919) appears to bear a direct relation to the progress made in bringing to the public the fact that tuberculosis is a preventable disease. The messages on the Seal this year—'Merry Christmas' and 'Healthy New Year'—call for plenty of time in the fresh air and sunshine of the out-doors, the eating of wholesome food and the taking of plenty of rest. These are the simple but effective remedies against tuberculosis. It will mean much for the public health if these simple lessons are brought more forcibly to the attention of everybody on these two days."

Tuberculosis Day will be observed in nearly all states of the Union on these days—December 3 and 5.

Mrs. S. J. Richardson and daughter Miss Minnie left this morning for a visit with relatives in Akron and Cleveland, O., over Thanksgiving day. They expect to return home early next week. 142c

The Monday Musical Club
Will Have Charge of the Local Campaign

ALL CAN HELP IN MOVEMENT

The Monday Musical Club of Charleroi will again assume charge of the local Christmas Seal Sale and the campaign will begin on Monday, November 29. The Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society has taken over the campaign in the State and under whose jurisdiction the Musical Club will work during the approaching holiday season. It is the purpose of the Musical Club to promote the idea of securing a community nurse, who would be available at all times, and particularly in times of epidemics, such as Charleroi is now passing through. On the success of the coming campaign will depend the success of the movement to secure such a nurse, but the committee in charge of the local campaign believe that once our people understand their mission they will only be too glad to co-operate in the movement and make it a success. The committee which will have the campaign directly in charge is composed of Mrs. Warren Kinder, Miss Nora Swan, Mrs. Gray Gaut and Miss Emma Clutter.

The committee calls the attention of our citizens to the fact that during 1919 in Pennsylvania 28 persons died of tuberculosis every 24 hours—more than one every hour. These deaths at least 100,000 cases and the economic loss from these cases and the shortened lives—cost Pennsylvania yearly from $1,500,000,000 to $3,000,000,000.

Christmas Seals furnish most of the funds for the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society and 100 local affiliated organizations. They employ 30 nurses, health educators and other workers. These workers assist the sick and disseminate facts on the nature, treatment and prevention of tuberculosis. In fact they are active in many lines looking to the betterment of sanitary conditions and the improvement of the health of the people at large. They are continually at work—not for a season, but for twelve months in the year. The money to carry on this work is provided by means of the sale of Seal and Health Bonds, and these will be offered by the Musical Club beginning next Monday, November 29. Every citizen can help this movement and all should give their support in making the sale a local success.

THE AUGER STABLES

"As measured by the terms of the Republican platform and by the conditions which confront the nation, the task assumed by the Republican party is by no means a light one," declares the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., in a statement issued today. "The task would be difficult regardless of the party that assumed it or the pledges it had made. Following eighty years of profligacy in Federal administration and a like period of development of bureaucracy getting back to government by law and government in accordance with sound economy will not be easy. To increase public expenditures is always easy; to curtail is doubly difficult for the reason that people have become accustomed to certain government activities and expect continuance even though the new activity may be a duplication of work performed by another bureau.

"Getting back to government by law will be a considerable undertaking for officialdom at Washington has learned to look upon government as a delegation of almost unlimited authority to exercise discretion in telling the American people what they may and may not do from time to time. The idea of putting regulations definitely and specifically upon the statute books so that a citizen may put his finger upon the page and paragraph that establishes his duties or limits his liberty, is repugnant to bureaucracy. A new postmaster general may acquiesce in such an innovation but all down the line of subordinates it will be difficult to get over the idea that the P. M. G. is a little king. Yet, getting back to government by law was the first pledge of the Republican platform, and it will be carried out.

"The subject of taxation, is one that will require early attention. On this subject the Republican platform did not undertake to deceive the people. The platform declares, 'The burden of taxation imposed upon the American people is staggering; but in presenting a true statement of the situation we must face the fact that while the character of the taxes can and should be changed an early reduction of the amount of revenue to be raised is not to be expected. The next Republican administration will inherit from its Democratic predecessor a floating indebtedness of over three billion dollars, the prompt liquidation of which is remanded by sound financial consideration. Moreover, the whole fiscal policy of the government must be deeply influenced by the necessity of meeting obligations in excess of five billion dollars which mature in 1923. But sound policy equally demands the early accomplishment of that real reduction of the tax burden which may be achieved by substituting simple for complex tax laws and procedure; prompt and certain determination of tax liability for delay and uncertainty; tax laws which do not for tax laws which do; excessively mulct the consumer or needlessly repress enterprise and thrift.

"Needless and unjustified though they are, the debts created by the Democratic administration are legal obligations of the government, and the Republican administration has no choice but to provide means of payment. Moreover, the debts were accumulated in a period of inflation and must be paid during a period of deflation. Debts accumulated with 40 cent dollars must be paid with 100 cent dollars.

Republican platform promise of national honor for the rights of Americans abroad Encouragement of promotion of peace; of industrial disputes; of an efficient railroad; rebuilding of the merchant marine; return to the protective tariff; revision of efficiency in the public service, are other pledges which the Republican platform made and which the party will proceed to fulfill. The job is a big one, but the party is equal to the task."

POOL ROOMS ARE BLAMED FOR TRUANCY

Truant Officer Cope of Brownsville, in court at Uniontown one day last week, in the case of a 14-year-old boy named Joe Behery, charged with being absent from school for fifteen days, told the court that conditions among the school children were bad, as the pool rooms and bowling alleys in Brownsville were crowded by the boys of school age.

He was told by the court to secure information on this matter and to lay it before the district attorney. If any violations of the child labor law, or other acts bearing on the subject were found to exist prosecutions would follow.

WE GIVE THANKS

It is good for us all to give one day each year to honest recognition of the things we have to be thankful for. This November we, as a Nation, again give thanks in memory of the Armistice that brought us peace. And we appreciate more keenly than ever the privilege that is given us all as Americans, a voice in selecting those who guide our national affairs. This Institution is thankful for the friends it has made, for its many opportunities of serving them, and for the vision of greater opportunities ahead. In keeping with the spirit of the day we shall be closed for Thanksgiving, November 25th.

DEAR OLD BOY PETE!

This corner of the U. S. mainland is so wonderful in its bigness and bustle I guess I go mouth wide open and eyes staring! Why, Pete, Texans don't talk in miles—it doesn't mean anything! They'll tell you that this place, or that, is an all-day trip, or two days and a night distant, etc. And, old yardstick, you've got the feet, just let it sink in deep that Texas is not only over 800 miles wide but it is our fifth state in population!

Heard a bird in the Adolphus Hotel say that when he comes off the west border he figures he's close home to Baltimore when he's across the Lone Star State! Talk about "jumps"! Try a few, say the one between Texarkana and El Paso!

Pete, everything grows big down here—business as well as folks' hearts! I like the way they never forget! Here I was walking on Main Street yesterday when as fine a type of man as ever wore one of those broad Texas smiles came up to me. "How are you, lieutenant?" says he. "Maybe you'll call back that day at Camp Dick when I brought over that bunch of Camel Cigarettes for the boys," he continued. Right then a Camel conference opened!

Golly, Pete, this party coins Camel compliments faster than the mint makes money! "Lieutenant," says he, "I know when I'm 'set'! I've smoked cigarettes for five years! (NOW LISTEN, PETER!) I know Camels and I know their marvellous mild, mellow body and refreshing flavor and wonderful Turkish and Domestic blend! A million Camels wouldn't tire a smoker's taste!" Now, Pete, I'll say that's some testifying!

Sincerely

Shorty.

P. S.—Between you and me I'll be gazing at tall buildings and things around 43d and Broadway—N-E-W Y-O-R-K—about the hour this note hits Boston's Back Bay! Write me at the same old stand!

WATCH THAT COLD!

The Lungs are Endangered until you Expel it

Head colds are not the trivial ailments many consider them. The passages in the nostrils lead down into the lungs; hence the cold is a threat of pneumonia, influenza or catarrh also may result from neglect.

Krew-Pina, the famous household ointment, affords prompt relief in all cases of cold. It is scientifically compounded entirely of simple home remedies, including Oil of Eucalyptus and other volatile oils, a petroleum base—absolutely harmless, but powerful in its action both through the pores of the skin and directly on the inflamed membranes by vapor contact.

Rub well in on the throat and chest, and apply in the nostrils. Draw the bed clothes up about the nose and inhale the medicinal vapors the heat of the body causes the ointment to give off. Repeat nightly until relieved.

Krew-Pina should be kept on hand for relief in cases of bronchitis, croup, piles, coughs, neuralgia, burns, cuts, bruises and many other common ailments. 30c and 60c jars with printed directions—at your druggist's.

Their Medicine Chest For 20 Years

IT is characteristic of folks after they pass the allotted "three score years and ten" to look back over the days that are gone and sigh for the life that once was.

I find myself, at seventy-two, frequently drifting back a quarter of a century, when I see myself in the little drug store I owned at Charleroi, Pa., making and selling a vegetable compound to my friends and customers—what was then known only as Dr. Lewis' Medicine for Stomach, Liver and Bowel Complaints.

For many years while I was perfecting my formula I studied and investigated the laxatives and cathartics on the market and became convinced that their main fault was not that they did not act on the bowels, but that their action was too violent and drastic, and upset the system of the user, which was due to the fact that they were not thorough enough in their action, simply acting on the upper or small intestine, while others would act only on the lower or large intestine, and that they almost invariably produced a habit requiring augmented doses.

I believed that a preparation to produce the best effect must first tone the liver, then act on the stomach and entire alimentary system. If this was accomplished, the medicine would produce a mild, but thorough elimination of the waste without the usual sickening sensations, and make the user feel better at once.

After experimenting with hundreds of different compounds, I at last perfected the formula that is now known as Dr. Lewis' Ready, which I truly believe goes further and does more than any laxative on the market today. The thousands of letters from users have convinced me I was right, and that the name of Dr. Lewis' Ready as a family medicine, even though he may have used it for twenty-five years, never has to increase the dose.

My knowledge of medicine and the results of its use in my own family and among my friends, before I ever offered it for sale, caused me to have great faith in Dr. Lewis' Ready from the very first.

And now as I find myself nearing the age when I must bow to the inevitable and go to another life, my greatest pleasure is to sit each day and read the letters that each mail brings from people as old or older than I, and full of having used Dr. Lewis' Ready for ten, fifteen and twenty years, and how they and their children and grandchildren have been benefited by it.

It is a comforting thought, my friends, for a man as my age to feel that aside from his own success, one has done something for his fellow man. My greatest satisfaction for my greatest happiness today, is the knowledge that tonight more than one million people will take a Dr. Lewis' Ready (Bottle No. 1) and will be better, healthier, happier people for it. I hope you will be one of them.
